As this catalogue goes out, the United States—and certainly also other nations—are experiencing Mother Nature's version of "fruit basket upset," a game we occasionally played in my one-room grade school in Oklahoma. We would all sit around in a circle on enough chairs for all but one kid, who would walk around with his or her brain in high gear, and who would yell out, "Fruit basket upset!" Then all the kids would get up and run around to get a different chair, and of course someone would end up without a chair, and the whole thing would start over again.

I guess the weather comparison is that it seems like all the weather types and events that are happening appear to be looking for a place to sit and are bumping into one another in a wild scramble.

Several years ago in an antique mall, I found a cute item apparently manufactured out of leather in 1936. It tells you the weather. I thought you might enjoy the touch of levity it represents while the "wicked witches" of all four cardinal directions act up and argue with one another looking for a place to sit.

1. Albright, Sylvia L. TAHLTAN ETHNOARCHAEOLOGY. . Burnaby BC: Simon Fraser Univ, 1984. First Edition. Very Good. 1st printing. 4to pictorial stiff wraps. 127pp. Illus. Maps. 4. Barlee, N. L. and Garnet Basque. CANADA WEST MAGAZINE. . Summerland & Langley: Canada West Magazine, 1969. First Edition. Fine. Complete set of Barlee's Canada West Magazine, 1969-1983, inclusive of the years when Garnet Basque bought and published the magazine. 32 issues. 4to pictorial wraps, all near fine to fine. Various paginations. I now describe the whole set in a sequence of four parts: Canada West Magazine published by Barlee, Vol. 1 #1 (Spring 1969) through Vol. 6 #4 (Fall 1976-24 issues.) Canada West Magazine published by Garnet Basque, Vol 6 #5 (Winter 1976, he decided to issue a #5 this year, and he called it "Collectors #25) through Vol 7 #3 (Fall 1977 "Collectors #28"-4 issues). Canada West: The Pioneer Years, name change from the earlier Published by Basque. Vol 7 #4 (which is "Collectors #29, circa 1978)- through Vol 11 #2" (which is which is "Collectors #40, Summer 1981) There are 14 issues in 10 volumes because in one he combined issues #30, 31, & 32). For three of these issues he went to a trade paper sized publication. Canada West Magazine published by Barlee when he regained ownership. He produced 4 issues, Vol 7 #1 (Spring 1982) through Vol 7 #4 (Fall 1983). 4 issues. There was a one-year gap between #3 and #4. Also to be noted is that Barlee went back and resumed where he left off on numbering, so there is a Vol 7 from Barlee as well as a volume 7 from Basque. (#2206004) $1,350.00

5. Barron, Clarence W. THE MEXICAN PROBLEM. . Boston: Houghton Mifflin, 1917. First Edition. Very Good. 1st printing. Small 8vo gilt-stamped cloth. 136pp. Illus. Map. Vg copy; no dj. NOT ex-lib. (#2206005) $15.00

8. Bird, Annie Laurie. CORRESPONDENCE/LETTERS. . Nampa: Private Correspondence, 1946. Very Good. Historian Bird of Nampa, Idaho, over a period of many years corresponded with rare book dealer Jerome Peltier of Clarks Old Book Store in Spokane. In this clutch of letters and cards, 23 in all, depending on what you count, but a minimum, Bird tries to answer questions from Peltier. While much of the content is personal (she talks about school teaching - was a high school teacher of history-her cats, a few trips, and even teaching Sunday School) the content discussed some figures of Pacific Northwest History Bird was researching, particularly William Wallace, who was governor of both Idaho and Washington Territories. Bird is trying to add to the data she is compiling, but often comes up on dead ends. A published articles is included, in duplicate, sent at two different times. There are no letters from Peltier, only Bird to Peltier. Most are from 1946-48, but a handful also as late as the 1960s. The letters are original as typed and signed by Bird and have their accompanying mailing envelopes. Peltier corresponded with countless historians and saved everything they sent him, it seemed. Now there was a rare book dealer who just soaked up history, particular that of the Pacific Northwest. Here is what the Idaho State Archives says of Bird: Annie Laurie Bird was born August 21, 1893 in Billings, Montana. Bird moved with her parents to Idaho in 1905, where they homesteaded in Owyhee County. The family moved to Caldwell in 1906 and to Nampa in 1918. Annie Bird attended the College of Idaho and Columbia University and was awarded a Doctor of Letters Degree from Northwest Nazarene College in 1970. A teacher in Nampa for 35 years, Bird became a regionally-noted historian, writer, and researcher. She was the author of many books and articles. State newspapers also published her poetry. Annie Laurie Bird died on December 26, 1972 in Nampa, Idaho. Books by Annie Laurie Bird: Boise, The Peace Valley. Caldwell, Idaho, Caxton Printers, 1934. reprint Nampa, Idaho, Canyon County Historical Society, 1975 >My Home Town. Caldwell, Idaho, Caxton Printers, 1968 Old Fort Boise. Parma, Idaho, Old Fort Boise Historical Society, 1971 Thomas McKay. Caldwell, Idaho, Caxton Printers, 1972. (#2206008) $450.00

20. Eastman, Mary Henderson; Coen, Rena Neumann. DAHCOTAH: Or, Life and Legends of the Sioux Around Fort Snelling. . Afton MN: Afton Historical Society, 1995. First Thus. As New/As New. 1st printing thus. 4to cloth 197pp. Fine, like new and still in shrink wrap. (#2206020) $45.00
21. Eaton, Frank. PISTOL PETE: Veteran of the Old West (Signed). . Boston: Little, Brown, 1953. Collectible Good. 4th printing. Cloth. 278pp. Illus. Written more or less as told by Eaton to Eva Gillhouse, "My friend and partner, Eva Gillhouse, wrote this book. It was her idea and she did all the work. It's just the way I told it to her--it's all true--and I'll back her with both guns." This copy inscribed, signed, and dated by Eaton "To My Friend / W. N. (?) Donachy / From / Frank Eaton / Pistol Pete / Perkins / OK / Sept 3 d 1955 / Born Oct 26 / 1860" and above the birth date Eaton penned his brand (Bar Triangle). Good copy with some darkening of spine and board edges. No dj. The first printings of this popular Oklahoma gunfighter and cowboy biography are scarce, and inscribed / signed copies even harder to find. The truthfulness of Eaton's entire account of his life has certainly been questioned, but to question it entirely is to ask for a fight. Famed Western bookseller T. N. Luther put it diplomatically, "Colorful reading, but not necessarily recommended for historical accuracy. (#2206021) $300.00
22. Eaton, Frank Pistol Pete. CAMPFIRE STORIES. . Stillwater: New Forums, 1988. First Edition. As New/As New. 1st printing. 23. Elliott, David Stewart. LAST RAID OF THE DALTONS and Battle with the Bandits at Coffeyville Kansas Oct 5 1892. . n.p.: n. p., 1960. Facsimile reprint. Very Good. Facsimile reprint, probably the 1954 reprint (see Adams Six-Guns 671). Decorated stapled wraps. 66pp. Illus. Light stains on back cover. Vg copy. (#2206023) $30.00
24. Emmett, Chris. TEXAS CAMEL TALES. . Austin: Steck-Vaughn, 1969. Reprint. Fine/Very Good. 1st printing of "New Edition." Pictorial cloth. 234pp. Illus. Notes. Index. Bibliography. Date stamp on ffep. The pleasingly designed Steck-Vaughn reprint. Collectable! Fine in vg dj with minor wear to extremities. (#2206024) $85.00
25. Evans, Oliver. THE YOUNG MILL-WRIGHT AND MILLER'S GUIDE. . Phila: Carey & Lea, 1829. 5th or later Edition. Collectible Good. Stated 6th edition. Original calf with original gilt-stamped label on spine. 282pp. Charts and tables. All 28 engraved plates are present. Covers worn. Hinges cracked but binding still tight. Foxing. Text block completely flexible. The ffep is barely attached and we have decided not to strengthen it; the buyer may do that easily. The ffep has old, three-line pencil name and information from time of purchase. "Paper mill 113 (?) ___ (?) / Alpha Smiths book / Bot (sic) at Boston Jan (Jun?) ___ 1831". Although several editions were printed, copies are scarce and especially so with all plates present. (#2206025) $200.00
26. Fowler, Dr. Wilfred J. R. OVC. DAILY JOURNAL 1914. . Toronto: n.p., 1914. Good-. Original hand-written journal/diary of esteemed Toronto horse veterinarian W. J. R. Fowler, who practiced beginning at the turn of the 19th century, the location being 464 Bathurst St. Gilt-stamped cloth over boards. Unpaginated but each leaf (excepting last leaves of memorandum) is ink handwritten for each day of the year, two days of a month per page. Please note that these entries are not detailed in terms of each day's work hour by hour in medical descriptions, but he consistently logs where he is going, whether to his practice, which at one time had around 30 horses in the infirmary on one day, or to other locations, even other cities, to assist or be the primary surgeon for an operation. Most surgeries, it appears, were for "roaring," (look it up). The entries have almost daily references to his wife and family and what they are doing and who they are entertaining. It was a different time, and almost each night a colleague, friend, or neighbor would drop by with spouse for the evening. Fowler was interested in chickens, so for most of the year he records on each day how many eggs were laid and the accumulated number of them to date. He records his active buying and selling of horses, his purchase of his first motor car, early battles of WWI, and other events such as the sinking of RMS Empress of Ireland near the mouth of the St. Laurence River. Fowler was acclaimed internationally for his equine work, including efficient and speedy surgeries, and was instrumental in moving the Ontario Veterinary College to Guelph. He was president of the Ontario Veterinary Association and was honored as late as 1950 for his career. Included with this journal will be a first edition copy of CENTURY ONE: A History of the Ontario Veterinary Association 1874-1974 (fine in chipped dj) by Evans and Barker, who devoted good space to Fowler (the rear paste down reproduces a newspaper ad of Fowler's practice. The journal is in good minus (-) condition due to the cloth at the bottom of the spine chipped away 1" and the front hinge broken. Title page is browned due to some paper laid in for a long time. Fowler did not sign his journal or give his practice's address, so it took this bookseller some time to actually identify who he was. Rare. (#2206026) $475.00
27. Fryer, Harold. GHOST TOWNS OF ALBERTA. . Langley BC: Stagecoach, 1976. First Edition. Fine/Near Fine. 1st printing. Cloth. 200pp. Illustrated mainly with vintage photos. Bibliography. Index. On the ffep is the ink stamp of the Canadian Book Information Centre in Toronto. Fine in near fine dj. (#2206027) $30.00

28. Gideon, D. C. INDIAN TERRITORY: Descriptive Biographical and Genealogical including the Landed Estates, County Seats Etc., Etc. with a General History of the Territory in One Volume. NYC and Chicago: Lewis Publishing Co. 1901. 1st printing. Beautifully rebound in three-quarter leather and cloth with gilt titles (slightly flaked) on spine and with new endpapers. 956pp. 100 photogravure portraits plus several other photos. A. E. G. (all edges gilt). Originally owned by and with the signature (three times) of "H. S. Suggs, Berwyn I. T." The second Suggs signature was on a chipped sheet & in rebinding the binder affixed it to a sheet of matching tone and bound it in. The third signature of Mr. Suggs is written along the inner margin of where he is in the book (pps. 580-581). Suggs "... came to Berwyn in the Indian Territory, where he continued in the lumber business [from Texas] and also ran a cotton gin until 1901, when he sold his gin and is now engaged in the hardware and lumber business . . . he is interested [also] in the cattle business, and firm being known as Suggs and Brother." The brother, Sidney Suggs, has an even longer entry in the volume and a portrait. A glossy photo of him and his family is laid in. It is printed from the archives of the Okla. Hist Soc. One leaf (pps 931-932) was once detached but has been tipped back in. It has tears radiating out from the gutter and has 3 1/2" x 1 1/2" inch loss of text in the middle of the page. Title page has two edge chips. One index sheet has old cloth tape edge repairs. Throughout there are some edge tears that have not been repaired, but we have discovered none of a serious nature. Many tissue guards are missing. There is some browning/foxing on some pages, but not extensively. Some page corners are rounded from use. We have conservatively graded this copy "good," but in our view with experience in these kinds of volumes, if it were in our personal collection, we would have no issue grading it very good. Adams (Six-guns 1107) says, "Has a long section on all the outlaws of the Indian Territory, including the Dalton gang and the Cook gang ..." [but Adams adds the author is mistaken about Belle Starr's brother & repeats false information about her]. In this section there is glowing information on the famous Black Man, Deputy. U. S. Marshal Bass Reeves, and an account of one of his captures of outlaws involving gunplay. An Oklahoma rarity. Howes G158. (2206028) $2,750.00

29. Gresham, Walter. MAJOR GENERAL WALTER QUINTON GRESHAM. . NY: Falk, 1890. Collectible Very Good. Original cabinet card photograph of Walter Quinton Gresham, born 1832. Gresham was elected to the Indiana Legislature in 1860, served in the Civil War (Vicksburg, Atlanta Campaign, was defeated twice of HR & once for Senate. In 1883 Pres. Arthur appointed him Postmaster General, then Sect'y of the Treasury, and then a U. S. Circuit Judge. Under Pres. Cleveland he became Sect'y of State. Dying in 1895, he is interred at Arlington Nat 'l Cemetery. Card is 4 1/4" x 6 1/2", lightly soiled and which the name Benjamin Harrison written in ink on the back. The studio was Falk, 949 Broadway, N.Y. (#2206029) $20.00

30. Grey Owl Archibald Stansfeld Belaney. GREY OWL: ORIGINAL GLASS PLATE NEGATIVES (Archibald Stansfeld Belaney). . Manitoba: Unknown photographer, 1930. Collectible Fine. Presumed 1920-1930. Presumed in Manitoba. Three original dry glass plate negatives with glossy b/w contact prints. 5" x 7". These images do not seem to appear in any collection of Belaney photos. Canadian (but born in England) conservationist Belaney, who named himself "Grey Owl," wrote best-selling books and held a position at Riding Mountain National Park in Manitoba. He claimed American Indian blood, but in 1938 this was dis-proven. Background to this set: Many years ago I purchased these plates and the prints from them. I wondered who this white man dressed up in buckskin and a long, designer, headdress made of white feathers could be. He was obviously posing to create a romantic, idealistic, Arts and Crafts style Red Man image. I think Grey Owl crossed my mind at the time, but I could not find any good photos of him (this was early in internet days) with which to compare. Fast forward years later and I uncovered these nearly forgotten. The possibly of Grey Owl again arose in my mind, but this time, because there are now many vintage photos of Belaney to examine-particularly a couple of him in profile-it didn't take too long for me to confirm for myself that this is, indeed, Grey Owl. I am not a professional authenticator of old photos of famous people from the Old West and its early 20th century copiers. However, experience with vintage portraits has taught me look at certain facial and head features in detail, while understanding at the same time that the desire for something to be authentic can lead to false identification. Because of several specific features of Grey Owl, including the slightly beaked nose, I am firmly at 90 to 100 per cent sure these photos are of him. I would not want anyone to purchase this set, however, without their own comparison of photos of Belaney with the photos in this sale offering. I can send the prospective buyer separate jpegs for better magnification. Obviously, if I do so, a prospective buyer cannot reproduce them in any form. I also have no provenance for these items. The contact prints were made by some previous owner in modern times as the Kodak paper is modern. The imprint on the back of each print, "THIS PAPER / MANUFACTURED / BY KODAK," suggests 1972 - early 1990s. The prints are wonderfully sharp. It is very possible that prints from these plates do not exist outside of this collection. While many dismiss and impugn the romantic Red Man image and regard them inauthentic and even demeaning, and while many are scandalized in the present by white men playing red men in the past, and while opinions of Delaney and his life are checkered and critical, it remains true for some that the images are beautiful, powerful, and biographically interesting as photographs. Whether or not the viewer is willing or even able to disengage from all the levers that, when pulled, lead to ethnic, racial, and social criticism and see the photos as photos as well as documents is up to the viewer. This set is not only rare but is almost certainly unique. (#2206030) $1,450.00

31. Hobson, Richmond Jr. THE RANCHER TAKES A WIFE. . Toronto: McClelland and Stewart, 1974. 2nd Edition. Near Fine/Very Good. 2nd edition, the Canadian edition, originally published in 1971. Gilt-stamped decorated cloth. 236pp. The third and final volume of the cattle ranching memoirs of the author, who was one of the first ranchers in central British Columbia, and who finally settled near Vanderhoof. These books are some of the best ranching memoirs ever written in this bookseller's opinion, and taking place in such a beautiful wild area of all North America. Near fine in slightly worn, pc dj. Nice copies in dj scarce. (#2206031) $50.00

38. Kansas. THE OFFICIAL STATE ATLAS OF KANSAS: Compiled from Government Surveys, County Records and Personal Investigations. . Philadelphia: L. H. Everts & Co, 1887. First Edition. Collectible Very Good. 1st printing. Huge quarto original one-half cloth & leather. 339pps. This is a fabulous volume. Here is what William Reese (Six Score #83) said of it in his bibliography of 150 best ranching books: "These atlases were designed so that pages could be tipped in. I doubt that any two copies are exactly alike. Pagination through page 340 (this copy 339 with verso blank), although there are many unnumbered pages of views. There are over 300 colored maps, views depicting over 350 scenes, and as many as 25 folding tissue maps interleave, as well as unpaginated text. 44.5 x 38 cm." (15" x 18"). Reese continues: "This massive compilation contains a vast wealth of information on Kansas at the time of publication. Many of the views depict stock ranches, which are also located on the extremely detailed maps. There are many bird's-eye views of towns and sights. Much of the accompanying text is devoted to listing the leading citizens of the state, their property, what kind of livestock they raise, and even what kind of fencing they use. The Everts' atlas is an important source for much information, with illustrations existing nowhere else. A similar atlas was issued for Nebraska by the same firm. The numerous state and county atlases of the late nineteenth century, usually sold by subscription, often contain the best illustrations and maps available." I have fully collated this copy and found something unusual, although a map and atlas dealer will likely say it is normative. There are theoretically 339 maps (some fine thin paper foldout maps, some on one page, and some multiple to a page) but when I discovered four missing maps by number, I also discovered they are not listed in the index to begin with. So this is a qualified "all maps present." This in very good condition with the covers worn at all extremities, but hinges and joints sound. A number of leaves have old tape on various locations of the edges fixing short tears in place. I did not find this a serious compromise to the condition of the pages or the book overall as they were place conservatively and carefully. This is the only copy I have offered for sale in nearly 34 years of selling books on the Old West. This is a very heavy volume and will be shipped at cost, above the default shipping price. Insurance will be added. (#2206038) $4,000.00

39. Kansas. INFORMATION GUIDE CITY OF LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS: Pocket Edition. . Leavenworth: n.p., 1922. First Edition. Collectible Very Good. Original small stapled and printed pamphlet, 4" x 5 3/4". (12pp). Stamped on the front cover is, "Seymour Transfer & Storage Co." On the third page inside on the Seymour ad, Seymour is marked over in pencil and the word "PIRATE" hand-printed above it. This pamphlet is an advertising booklet that includes inside the covers and on back cover a list of the city officers, the police and fire departments, the board of education and county officials. The ads (no graphics; just text) are for various named businesses for studio photography, building supply, motor car dealers and garages, gas stations, painting, welding, groceries, firearms, cigars, chickens and eggs, flowers, chiropractor, the Hippodrome Theatre, etc. and my favorite perhaps, "For a Real Breakfast Try Schalker's Trophy Bacon." We find no record of this pamphlet offered for sale and no copies in world libraries. Vg copy with bottom cover corner creases archivally stabilized. Rare, even if not of earthshaking interest. (#2206039) $250.00

59. Oklahoma. PORTRAIT AND BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD OF OKLAHOMA (cover title: Genealogy and Biography) (spine title: Biographical Oklahoma). . Chicago: Chapman Publishing Co, 1901. First Edition. Very Good+. 1st printing beautifully rebound in full leather and with new endpapers. Quarto with gilt-stamped spine titles. 1,298pp. Index. All edges gilt (A. E. G.) Book is subtitled: "Commemorating the achievements of citizens who have contributed to the progress of Oklahoma and the development of its resources." Approximately 1,000 entries with bio & varying amounts of interesting genealogical information on politicians, city builders, ranchers, settlers, professors, priests & pastors, federal & territorial officers, doctors, etc.. Frontispiece is a fine portrait of Major Gordon W. Lillie, "Pawnee Bill". Six page introduction, "The Opening of Oklahoma." Noteworthy entries that also have portraits (most entries do not have portraits) include: W. E. Malaley (full portrait, holding a rifle), the frontiersman & cowman who found the murdered Pat Hennessey, , Deputy U.S. Marshals William D. Fossett & Charles Colcord (City Police Chief of OKC). Some husband/wife couples, family portraits, & a couple portraits of women are included. Women include Nettie Reppeto, proprietor of the Royal Hotel in Guthrie. Residences are pictured, as well. Text entries are at least one full column & usually more. Only a few Indians are represented. There is an entry (but no portrait) of the famous photographer William S. Prettyman. Also, Dr. Jesse Mooney (who attended Belle Starr), & many other people well known at the time, especially in their own localities. Very scarce and desirable. In remarkably near fine to fine condition. Very, very slight edge chips to front portrait. Pages supple and no brittleness.

A few tiny edge chips elsewhere. Oversized. If you've been putting off getting this book in the first edition, you should jump on this copy. (#2206059) $695.00

60. Oregon. SEE OREGON FIRST: Miniature Set of COLUMBIA RIVER HIGHWAY - 16 Photos. . Salem: Pacific Photo Co, 1940. Fine. A nifty little set of b/w photos, slightly sepia, of scenes along the Columbia River Highway showing waterfalls and other landmarks. These little gems are each 1 3/4" x 2 3/4" and come with the original printed brown envelope. Each photo has a caption in tiny print. I admit I'm guess on the date as there is not date given, but I feel confident they are no later than 1940. Fine. (#2206060) $20.00

61. Orpen, Mrs. Adela E. MEMORIES OF THE OLD EMIGRANT DAYS IN KANSAS, 1862-1865 Also Of a Visit to Paris in 1867. . London: William Blackwood & Sons, 1926. First Edition. Collectible Good. 1st printing. Gilt-stamped blue cloth. 324pp. Frontispiece & two illus. This appears to be quite a descriptive read of life in Kansas for a brief period. "This is the autobiography of a little girl who went to live, amid almost complete isolation, on the Kansas prairie before it was settled up. It was the time, too, when the States were being torn by Secession and Civil War..." There is a chapter on Quantrill's raid on Lawrence, and material on cattle ranching. Orpen was born in Virginia, moved to Kansas with her family, and then to Ireland. A good+ copy. Couple of small spots on cover and a little dull, but certainly a decent copy unless the buyer wants a near perfect one. No dj. Uncommon. (#2206061) $80.00
